

1. Check requirements

Check and understand the joining and technical requirements to become an RE100 member.

3. Check eligibility

The team or partner will check that you meet the requirements in the Joining Criteria to be eligible to apply. Clarification questions may be asked.

Estimated time: 2–3 weeks

5. Application review

The company's application will be assessed against the Joining Criteria and a due diligence process will be carried out.

Estimated time: 2–3 weeks

7. Plan announcement

The date/time and communications of the company's official joining announcement will be agreed with Climate Group.

2. Get in touch

If you feel the company meets the requirements, contact the RE100 team or your local RE100 partner to register your interest in becoming an RE100 member. Cover off any questions you may have.

4. Apply for RE100 membership

Once the company's eligibility has been established, you will be need to fill in the Joining Form with the company's RE100 target.

6. Application decision

You will receive your application decision from the team. If accepted, you will need to sign the Membership Agreement, after which the company will be a member and will receive the membership benefits.

8. New member announcement

The company can announce its RE100 membership through a press release and/or on social media on the agreed date. Climate Group will provide supporting materials and list the company on the RE100 website.